

Dr. Sarah Sumner – BIO

Sarah Sumner is President of Right On Mission, a new model of education that is leap-frogging over the crisis in Christian higher education. Right On Mission is a high-tech, high integrity, hybrid seminary that offers these 4 services:

- Mission Statement Services for believers at least 21 years of age
- Consulting Services for Christian churches and organizations
- Speaking Services for events
- Seminary Services for Christ followers who want to deepen their relationship with God.

Dr. Sumner holds a Ph.D. in Systematic Theology from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School and an MBA from Azusa Pacific University in Azusa, CA. She was trained as a Global Change Agent in the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University.

Sarah Sumner is the first woman to have graduated with a Ph.D. in Systematic Theology from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School and the only woman theologian in the United States to have served as dean of a conservative evangelical seminary. Within the first sixteen months under her leadership, A.W. Tozer Theological Seminary broke three all-time records in 34 years.

She has four published books including Men and Women in the Church: Building Consensus on Christian Leadership (IVP, 2003; now in its 12th printing), Leadership Above the Line (Tyndale, 2006), Just How Married Do You Want To Be? (IVP, 2008) and Angry Like Jesus: Using His Example To Spark Your Moral Courage (Fortress, 2015).

On the side, she is an adjunct professor at Trinity Law School and an aerobics instructor at Shasta Athletic Club. She enjoys jogging, swimming, reading, writing old fashioned letters, and being with friends of all ages.

She has spoken nationally and internationally in venues such as Sunday morning church services, Christian conferences, Graduation Commencements, Chapel services, the Pentagon, the White House, Radio and TV spots including CBS, PAX-TV and TBN.
