

Dave Robinson - BIO

Title: Executive Director, Church Movements (<https://churchmovements.com/>), Cru

Bio: Dave's passion is partnering to make Jesus known, multiply churches and serve the city. We seek to saturate the city with the gospel in word and deed through collaborative leadership expressed in city movements – both church-planting and city transformation movements (<http://cityleadershipnetworks.com/>). Dave and Karen, married for 40 years, have three grown children and five grandchildren. They made their home in Eastern Europe for 18 years, where Dave served in various leadership roles with Campus Crusade for Christ International. He co-authored Youth at the Threshold of Life, an accredited curriculum used in Hungarian public schools and The Outrageous Promise, an account of God's love for those who suffered under communism and how leaders collaborate to make a difference (<http://www.outrageouspromise.com/>). Dave also serves as a teaching elder at New Life CityChurch (newlifecity.church).
