

Caroline Mendez - BIO

Caroline Mendez is a disciple of Jesus Christ, wife, mother, businesswoman and champion for Christian women in leadership.

She spent 21 years in Corporate America, starting in the mailroom and working her way up to executive management positions in the High Tech industry. For the past 18 years she has joyfully coached women in their lives and businesses, challenging and stretching them to be fully who Christ has created them to be.

Her gifting is challenging Christian women leaders to live their vision. She is a newly Ordained Minister and holds certifications as a Professional Certified Coach, Certified Gospel Coach & Certified Coach Facilitator. She has recently published her life's work at the Lord's leading, Threads of Wisdom.

Caroline is most passionate about her newest role as National Brand Ambassador @ iWork4Him.com and transforming the workplaces of 50 million Christians into their mission field. Her heart is discipling and coaching women in jail to create a new life, women's biblical equality, and her life's calling, to empower Christian women in the workplace with the newly discovered 9 attributes of Christian Women Leaders.