

James Bryanson - BIO

James is a father to four adult children, three grandchildren, and husband to Tammy. He has traveled to more than 50 countries, 27 with a Muslim majority. He participates annually in Muslim/Christian dialogues in North Africa and the Middle East in addition to coaching believers from a Muslim background on how to share their faith. A graduate of Dallas Theological Seminary, he has authored the book, Talking About Isa, How to share your faith with your Muslim friend.