

Kendall Qualls is a lifelong Republican and candidate for Minnesota's Third Congressional District. Kendall has 25+ years of experience in the healthcare industry. He was a Global Vice President, Marketing at Medtronic/Covidien. In addition to Medtronic, Kendall has had increasing roles of responsibility in Marketing and Sales in both BioPharma and Med Tech companies such as Johnson & Johnson and Roche Labs.

Kendall has held Board positions with two non-profit organizations. He was on the Board of Trustees at Nyack Hospital in metro NYC from 2011-2013. He also served on the Board of Directors at Colorado Uplift — an organization with a 35-year track record of breaking the cycle of poverty in Denver's inner-city youth. Currently, Kendall serves as a Mentor at Minnesota Adult and Teen Challenge.

Before entering the healthcare industry, Kendall served as an officer in the U.S. Army, Field Artillery. He was stationed in the U.S. and in South Korea.

Kendall has an MBA from the University of Michigan, a Master of Arts Degree from the University of Oklahoma and a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Cameron University. Kendall and his wife, Sheila have been married for 34 years. Kendall and Sheila have five children and an English Black Lab, named Largo.