

MIKE FRANK BIO

Mike Frank lives in Omaha Nebraska with his wife Robbie. They have been married for over 43 years. For the first half of his career Mike was a high-level executive with General Mills, PepsiCo and Walt Disney Company. He then helped build MFS Communications and then became a cofounder of Level 3 Communications. In 2009 to 2016 Mike and Robbie lived in Redding California where Mike completed his book Prosperity with Purpose and founded the Shasta Angels Group for Entrepreneurs. Today Mike is the chairman of the GTA Development Fund in Hawaii where they make Hawaii centric movies. Mike has also served as a Board member for various for profit and nonprofit organizations including being the first president of The Hope Center for Kids for the first several years of its existence. Mike's an avid reader, golfer and outdoorsman and a community leader.