

Nicole Sdao Bio

Nicole grew up in a small town in Wisconsin and went on to get her bacteriology degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She did oncology research and became a published co-author while at UW-Madison. She changed her focus to become a Chiropractic physician. She met her husband while at Chiropractic school in the Chicagoland area. They started their practice in Freeport, Illinois. During the last 20 years, the family grew with the addition of three children. The leadership positions grew as well in many nonprofits. She felt a calling to become a tech founder and started Altruize which is an app to help increase altruism and general kindness in society. She is also a Championship bodybuilder. Nicole lives by a favorite quote by Erma Bombeck "When I stand before God at the end of my life, I would hope that I would not have a single bit of talent left, and could say, 'I used everything you gave me'."
