

Dr. Joy Dahl's Bio – BOLDLY and Other:

Dr. Joy Dahl is a disciple-making disciple, helping believers embrace their calling as Christ's ambassadors in the world and in the workplace. As a CPA and a Chief Financial Officer by trade, Joy has focused most of her career on start-up and high-growth companies in Washington DC, New York, and Texas. Joy earned three degrees from Dallas Theological Seminary: Master of Christian Education, Master of Biblical Studies, and Doctor of Ministry. Her emphasis on the integration of faith and work led to her current role as Executive Director of Polished Network, which gathers women to navigate the workplace and explore faith together in authentic community. Joy blogs monthly on Bible.org, and she is the visionary behind the BOLDLY Conference—the first-of-its kind Faith + Work for Women Conference launching in 2021. Joy and her husband, Gordon, call Dallas home. Joy's favorite things include: God's Word, international travel, dark chocolate, horses, flowers, beach getaways, running, big dogs, and adventure!
