

Robert Keith Fischer - BIO

Vice President Fischer Furniture, Rapid City, SD. BA Business Administration, University of Nebraska; Co-Chair of Black Hills Paha Sapa Celebration with Will Graham; Coordinator for the annual Faith and Hope Community Prayer Breakfast; serves on the board of TeamMates Mentoring in Rapid City; former board member of the national Pinnacle Forum board, and presently serves on the local chapter board of Pinnacle Forum, Former Board Chairman of a start up Christian College in Rapid City, John Witherspoon College; Coordinator of the Rapid City Convoy of Hope; Co-Chairman of the Black Hills Luis Palau Crusade; former councilman, Rapid City Common Council; former Executive Committee, Council for National Policy; former President of the South Dakota Family Policy Council; former President in 2006 of VoteYesForLife.com, a ballot initiative to end abortion in South Dakota; Resolutions Committee member of the 1992 Republican National Convention; former President of the board of Rapid City Christian School; former trustee of Criswell College; former deacon and elder; owned and operated, with his wife Rita, KLMP, a Christian FM commercial radio station; coordinated political meetings of conservatives for many years; served on the Advisory Council of the Family Heritage Alliance; Presently serving as a Gideon and co-teaching a weekly men's Bible study; served in jail ministry for many years and with the local Juvenile Services Center; has served on 34 foreign mission short term evangelism projects with International Commission; presently serving as the Coordinator for The Group, a coalition of national leaders who are interested in making more multiplying disciples, mentoring in public schools, encouraging business and community leaders to live out their faith in their workplace and in their communities, and community transformation led by Christians.

Married to Rita Denise (Miller) Fischer for 46 years, father of five children, grandfather of fourteen grandchildren.