

RICK ZOREHKEY

PARTNER ENGAGEMENT DIRECTOR

Rick Zorehkey is the Partner Engagement Director at Convoy of Hope, a faith-based, nonprofit organization that leads humanitarian initiatives across the United States and around the world.

Through Convoy of Hope, families receive supplies and resources through community outreaches, international children's feeding programs, job training for mothers, agriculture initiatives, and disaster relief.

HONORARIUM & TRAVEL EXPENSES

In the event the host is taking care of the speaker's travel expenses, the speaker will provide receipts. The reimbursement check should be made payable to "Convoy of Hope."

If the event host wishes to provide an honorarium to the speaker, the check should be made payable to the speaker.

“Less than 1% of the charities we evaluate have received at least 18 consecutive 4-star evaluations, indicating that Convoy of Hope outperforms most other charities in America.” —Michael Thatcher, president and CEO of Charity Navigator

Rick joined Convoy of Hope in 2009 after a successful 22-year career as a retail real estate consultant. Rick shares the passion and vision of Convoy of Hope with business, government, and leaders of faith so in order that their organizations have the opportunity to partner with Convoy of Hope in helping the poor and suffering. He addresses leaders around the world on the role of faith in community and corporate responsibility as a way to move people to a heart of compassion.

Rick has been married for more than 28 years, is a father of three, and has three grandchildren. He loves riding his motorcycle and playing guitar, but not at the same time.

WHO WE ARE

Convoy of Hope is a faith-based, international humanitarian-relief organization strategically located in Springfield, Missouri — the crossroads of America. Our goal is to bring hope to people who need it most in the United States and developing countries around the world.

Since 1994, it has been Convoy of Hope's privilege to work with churches, businesses, government agencies, and other nonprofits to provide help to the impoverished, hungry, and hurting.

OUR IMPACT TO DATE

More than 130 million people served since 1994.

$1.1 billion worth of food and supplies distributed.

300,000+ children currently engaged in our strategic Children's Feeding program.

Serving more than 1,500 communities in 18 countries.

More than 24,500 farmers trained in agriculture.

More than 19,400 women empowered through job training and education.

More than 425 disaster responses worldwide.

More than 2.4 million Guests of Honor served at more than 1,300 Community Events.

WHAT WE DO

Children's Feeding

We use regular meals in schools as a starting point to build and support thriving communities in 18 countries.

Agriculture

We equip vulnerable farmers and their families with the skills, tools, and seeds to produce life-sustaining crops.

Women's Empowerment

We partner with women to help develop sustainable resources which they can leverage to make more strategic, independent life choices.

Disaster Services

We utilize our eight international warehouses, four domestic warehouses, a specialized disaster response fleet, and a highly-trained team of staff and volunteers to respond to disasters quickly and effectively.

Community Events

We partner with local entities to provide free groceries, health and dental screenings, haircuts, family portraits, veterans services, hot meals, career service training, and much more to those who may not have the means to access these resources themselves.
