

Tom Okarma – BIO

Tom Okarma is a nonprofit leadership Author, Keynote Speaker, Coach, and Consultant, focused on improving nonprofit organizations through improved leadership, strategic planning, board development, and governance.

His devotion to helping nonprofits, combined with over 30 years of business experience, make him a dramatic force for change, helping nonprofits increase their impact.

His Life Mission Statement is “To Empower People with Strategies that Honor What God Loves”.

Tom built a solid track record of success leading rapidly growing companies, non-profits, and private organizations through a commitment to mission, values, organizational development, and profitable revenue growth.

Tom has successfully led through influence, worked with a variety of disparate stakeholders, managed with minimal resources, and succeeded in a consensus-driven environment.