

Karen Bowling – BIO

Karen owned a small business in Lincoln, Nebraska for 25 years and brought her business management skills to the Nebraska Family Alliance Team in 2001.

After serving as the Outreach Director for 15 years, Karen became the Executive Director of Nebraska following a search by the Board of Directors. Karen's experience at the Capitol and her passion to see a state where God is honored, religious liberty flourishes, families thrive, and life is protected, positioned her to provide strategic leadership to the NFA Team.

Karen established NFA's Intercessory Prayer Network that is now the NFA E-Network informing Nebraskans on key issues that impact the state reaching over 2,500 people in 200+ Nebraska communities. She serves as the State Coordinator for the National Day of Prayer and provides leadership for Prayer Place a 24/7 Prayer Center located near the Capitol inside the NFA facility.

Karen has two adult sons, a daughter-in-law, and four grandchildren that keep her busy, laughing, and young at heart. She enjoys speaking, leading a Ladies Bible Study, and mentoring young women.
