

Craig Syracuse – Bio 2022

Craig Syracuse is a seasoned professional and Christian Life Coach with nearly 20 years of experience in the entertainment industry. His multi-faceted background includes writing, directing, and producing award-winning films, documentaries, and TV shows as well as starring roles in commercials and movies.

Craig is currently the creator and host of the nationally syndicated talk show "Walk in Faith" where he interviews celebrities, athletes, and influencers about their journey of faith. As a freelance director, producer, and writer, he has many ongoing projects and a new book to be released soon!

In Craig's most recent role as Director of Programming and Production for NET TV, he created and produced thousands of hours of content, including original talk shows, documentary films, promos, and commercials. Under Craig's leadership, Net TV increased its viewership to networks throughout the world and was recently honored with a Gabriel Award for Station of the Year by the Catholic Press Association. Craig has received industry-wide recognition for his work, including 4 Emmy nominations and multiple Communicator awards; one for directing a commercial for the late George Steinbrenner's Silver Shield Foundation. Also earning several Telly Awards, an IndieFest Film Award, and a Global Accolade. In 2013, "Rising Stars" recognized him as one of the most successful people under the age of 40.

Through Craig's role at DeSales Media Group, he created and coordinated a variety of events, from anti-bullying campaigns to charity events to golf outings. He also organized the first Catholic Day at Citi Field, culminating with mass inside the stadium for all the Brooklyn/Queens Diocese and of course, a Mets game! Craig's events have received industry-wide attention and have been recognized by KTU Cares 103.5, Z100, NBC, CBS, Channel 12, FOX 5, The Daily News, Brooklyn Eagle, and The Tablet, and by top industry professionals and politicians. One of the highlights in Craig's career was meeting Pope Francis during his Papal trip to New York City, orchestrating the creation of a 130-foot mural of Pope Francis, a concept that received international media attention.

Craig is a Brooklyn native who lives with his wife and son at their home in New Jersey.
