

Blake Mattocks - BIO

Executive and team leader. Passionate about people development and mission success. In the past 10 years I have helped build teams responsible for carrying out the objectives of a multilayered large company. With 25 plus years of leadership experience, including church planting, campus pastor responsibilities, and staff oversight I strive to raise the confidence and competency level of all people, helping them achieve their greatest potential.

Currently the project manager for 365 Christian Men. Working with an outstanding team, our objective was to write, record and create videos capturing inspirational stories of real men. One a day for an entire year.
