

Dale Micetic – Bio 2023

Dale Micetic currently co-leads a Pinnacle Forum group in Phoenix, Arizona.

Prior to retiring in 2013, Dale had a career in commercial construction serving the Phoenix area. Dale and his wife, Sue founded and operated Terrain Systems, Inc, a commercial landscape services company in Phoenix, Arizona. They successfully operated the company from 1978 until they sold it in 2002. Dale continued to manage the firm for the acquiring firm until 2013 when he retired from the operation of the company. When the Micetic's firm was acquired, Terrain Systems employed 350 full time employees and annually completed $17 million of landscape related services across Arizona. Dale continues consulting small businesses in process of improvement practices on a limited basis.

Dale Micetic completed a Liberal Arts degree from Arizona State University in Biological Sciences as well as a master's degree in biblical leadership from Western Seminary in Portland, Oregon.

As a fun note, Dale's wife, is the real academic. Sue completed her Masters in theology once the kids were raised and went on to complete her PhD from Arizona State University as she was turning 65.

Dale and Sue are active in their local church and serve on one of the steering committees for Young Life Arizona. Dale currently chairs the Board of Directors of OC International and has served as a board member of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Metropolitan Phoenix, The Salvation Army/Phoenix and Partners International.

Dale enjoys mentoring young believers, travel, sailing, hiking, and general aviation.

Dale and Sue Micetic reside in Phoenix and have four adult children, and 10 grandchildren.
