

SCOT A. CLEVINGER – BIO 2023

Scot is a graduate of The Master's Program, a 3-year Christian Leadership Development Program. He currently serves on the Advisory Boards for: Operation Care, a ministry to the homeless and others in need, currently serving over 10,000+ annually in Dallas, and many others nationally and internationally, and Daddy Saturday Foundation whose goal is to impact 10 million fathers in the next 10 years by equipping fathers with the knowledge and tools to raise good kids who become great adults and putting an end to the fatherlessness epidemic in America and abroad. He is also involved in pursuing Business as Mission as part of the Leadership Team of The Lion's Den DFW.

He served as a Founding Board Member for The Barnabas Group DFW and is a past Board Member of Abiding Fathers. He also served on the Finance & Fundraising committee for two Greg Laurie Harvest America Events in DFW at AT&T Stadium activities that each reached an estimated 80,000+ in live attendance, and many more watching via live internet stream.

Scot has engaged with other organizations including Pinnacle Forum, Wingmen, Kingdom At Work, Kingdom In Politics, Christian Business Men's Connection Luncheon Series (CBMC), Business As Mission (BAM) Conferences, The DFW Technology Prayer Breakfast, Trout Speaker Series, Council for Life, Dallas Real Estate Ministries (DREM), Parent Compass, Faith Driven Investors, Faith Driven Entrepreneurs, The Lion's Den Birmingham.

Mr. Clevenger has held executive positions with commercial real estate and investment firms and began his career as an Auditor for the national accounting firm Alexander Grant the predecessor firm to Grant Thornton. Mr. Clevenger has an MBA from the Price School of Business at the University of Oklahoma and is an Accounting Honors graduate from Southwestern Oklahoma State University

Scot is Senior Vice President in the MacDonald Family of Companies, a Family Office Organization that owns, operates, acquires, and invests in: Rent-to-Own (RTO) Necessity Retail Stores which help customers obtain bedding, furniture, appliances, and electronics. Value-Add Multifamily Apartments in the workforce housing space. The Principals of MacDonald believe, "all business is ministry and mission". Specifically, they have created ministry organizations focused toward meeting the physical and spiritual needs of the individuals and families they have served in the past and currently.

Scot and his wife, Cristina, have been married 35 years with three grown children and a son-in-law and attend Prestonwood Baptist Church and Gateway Church Frisco.