

Michelle Warren – BIO 2023

Michelle Warren is an accomplished kingdom entrepreneur, business owner and the visionary founder of a female, faith-filled networking group. With a resolute calling that led her to transition from a flourishing executive position to the inception of her enterprise, Catalyst Consulting Group, during the unprecedented challenges of a global pandemic, Michelle's unwavering commitment to her purpose is evident. She attributes her success to divine guidance, naming God as her CEO while occupying the role of President.

Michelle's professional career has been predominantly aligned with the commercial furniture sector. Through Catalyst, she spearheads a transformative mission aimed at fostering growth for small businesses within the furniture industry.

In a remarkably brief span of two and a half years, the divine hand guiding Catalyst's evolution has led it to burgeon into a cohesive team of six professionals. The firm boasts an impressive portfolio of 12 steadfast consulting clients and a diverse array of clients engaged in various programs.

Complementing her entrepreneurial endeavors, Michelle's latest undertaking, Faith Filled Women, underscores her commitment to fostering a vibrant community of enterprising women driven by faith. Through this pioneering initiative, Michelle seeks to assemble like-minded women in business, nurturing an environment where faith is harnessed as a wellspring of resilience and collective strength.

Michelle's roots trace back to Baltimore, MD where she earned her Bachelor of Science in Business Marketing from Frostburg State University and a Master's In Business Administration from the University of Baltimore.

Michelle's spiritual odyssey, marked by a transformational moment in 1996, saw her embrace Christianity, anchoring her life's purpose and pursuits. Michelle's zeal for travel has found her residing in various states, each experience contributing to her multifaceted perspective.

Currently she resides on the Eastern Shore in Dagsboro, Delaware with her cherished beagle, Zoe.

Michelle's unwavering pursuit of meaningful, professional growth and her desire for Christian fellowship with other women entrepreneurs led her to become a member of Pinnacle Forum in May of 2021.
