

Morgan Boardman, CFRE – Bio 2023

Morgan Boardman is Chief Development Officer for MedSend, a high impact international ministry focused on advancing the great commission through innovative healthcare missions. He has been in his role with MedSend for the past six years.

Prior to joining MedSend, he spent 23 years with one of the nation's leading fundraising consultancies serving churches, ministries and nonprofit organizations across the country and he has expertise in the areas of leadership, fundraising, communication strategies and marketing, organizational management, and business systems and process.

In his role with MedSend, Morgan is responsible for overseeing a ministry budget of $3.7 million and growing, that provides funding to support over 200 healthcare professionals that are advancing the gospel in more than 50 countries through healthcare missions.

Morgan is an ordained minister, studied theology at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and received his degree in music education from West Texas A&M University. He also holds certification from CFRE International.

In addition to his role with MedSend, he serves as a member of the Board of Directors for NonPareil Institute in Plano, TX.

He and his wife Teresa live in Lindale, Texas, and enjoy spending time with their children, grandchildren, and extended families. Morgan is an avid outdoorsman with a love for golf, fishing, and hiking.

Morgan is passionate about building the Kingdom and enjoys being in the unique place where the conversations around ministry and money come together.